

SOCIAL EVENTS AND PERSONAL MENTION

ANNUAL GARDEN FETE TO BE HELD AT "PAXTON"

Estate of Mr. and Mrs. John Skelton Williams Scene of Interesting Event.

MANY ARE GOING TO JAMESTOWN

Distinguished Guests From All Parts of State Will Accompany A. P. V. A. on Annual Pilgrimage.

Miss Alice Stokes left Richmond today evening for New York, from which place she sailed yesterday on board the Cunard steamship Colonia for Europe. Miss Stokes expects to spend some time in England, where she will be the guest of relatives.

Annual Garden Fete. The annual garden fete of the guild of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, which is to be held this season at "Paxton," the summer residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Skelton Williams at Westhampton, on the afternoon of May 21 from 5 to 8 o'clock, will be an unusually interesting event. All sorts of elaborate plans are being made for the entertainment, and Mrs. Williams will also open the house for the affair, tea and confections to be served in the sun parlors and palm room, as well as in the beautiful garden and on the brick terraces surrounding the place. This is always the big society event of the late spring and summer, and numerous parties motor out from town to attend it. The public is invited, and the entertainment is non-denominational.

Flower booths and refreshment tents will be erected and the usual races and pageants that adorn these fetes will be furnished from the gardens of the women in charge of the entertainment. Automobiles will be sent to the car line at 5:30 to meet all those going out from Richmond. The officers of the guild are as follows: Mrs. M. C. Patterson, president; Mrs. James C. Smyth, first vice-president; Mrs. George Wallace, second vice-president; Mrs. Julien Gunn, recording secretary; and Mrs. St. George Anderson, treasurer.

Marriage Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Walker, of Park Avenue, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Annie Duke, to Marvin Newton, of Durham, N. C. The ceremony was celebrated on Monday in Durham.

"Hickety-Backety" House.

In Mother Goose costume, twelve little girls will "peddle" Kewpie dolls, chocolates and confections of Frances Hodgson Burnett's charming play at its performance here next week. The play is being presented under the direction of the Commonwealth Chapter, daughters of the American Revolution, and is for the benefit of the Bazooka Mission. Large audiences will, it is expected, greet its appearance at the matinee, which takes place at the Academy of Music on Tuesday, May 12, through Friday, May 22, with a night performance on Thursday evening. The little girls who will be in the roles in fancy costume include Misses Katherine Lee, Laura Nelson, Gertrude Talbot, Annie Cone, Mary Haskins, Marie Wilkinson, Sally Gordon, Elizabeth Kelly, Antoinette Thierman, Elizabeth Knox, Margaret Miller, and Hazeline Watkinson.

The play is a fascinating affair, and a number of boxes, with parties to be entertained for each performance, have already been arranged.

Mrs. Moffitt a Guest.

Says the Washington Post of yesterday:

"The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels entertained at dinner at Single Oak on Tuesday night in compliment to the commandant of the marine corps and Mrs. George Barnett. The guests to meet them were Admiral and Mrs. Green, Captain and Mrs. Washington, Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. Needham L. Jones, General Albert L. Mills, Mrs. F. P. Fletcher, Colonel Charles L. McCawley, Paymaster and Mrs. Martin, and Mrs. E. Moffitt, of Richmond, who is a house guest of Secretary and Mrs. Daniels."

Engagement Announced.

Mrs. Mollie Coble Blount, of 2561 Floyd Avenue, announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Mary Hyslop, to Harry Lee Whitmore. The wedding will be celebrated on June 8.

Pilgrimage to Jamestown.

Miss Bettie Ellyson will have charge of the refreshments, as usual, on the annual excursion of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities to Jamestown. The outing this year is to be held on Saturday, May 23, and many distinguished guests from all parts of the State will come to Richmond to join in the excursion.

On its annual pilgrimage to that historic spot. Many interesting parties will be made up for the affair, and the committee in charge includes some of the leading society women of the city. The unweaving of tablets at Jamestown this year makes the outing of especial interest, and a larger crowd than usual will go down the river with the association.

Handsome Gift for Mrs. Boock.

Mrs. Thomas S. Boock has been honored by the very handsome gift of a gold badge, ornamented by a Confederate flag, as a token from enthusiastic friends in the South. The brooch was presented to Mrs. Boock as a symbol of the valuation put upon her splendid, untiring service in raising funds for the Arlington monument. The amount raised by her in Virginia was an achievement in itself, since this State contributed more than any other in the South. When the pin was exhibited at the meeting of the Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, on Tuesday morning, a rising vote of thanks was given Mrs. Boock, which was followed by a perfect storm of applause.

Attending Celebration.

Former cadets Dr. George Ross, Dr. J. N. Upshur, Preston Cocke, General Charles J. Anderson, James B. Harvey, Dr. R. G. Cabell and Charles M. Weston left town yesterday morning for New Market, Shenandoah County. They will attend the fiftieth anniversary of the battle fought on May 15, 1864. Charles James Faulkner will be their orator, and the corps of cadets from the Virginia Military Institute, under the command of Colonel Jennings C. Wise, will also take part in this interesting celebration.

Entertained at Cards.

Mrs. John M. Coleman entertained at a delightful bridge party on Tuesday afternoon at her home in Newport News, in honor of Mrs. Howard Sutton, of Richmond. Honeycuckles and snobbies were used in profusion to make the reception hall and library attractive, and the dining-room was pretty in a color scheme of yellow, quantities of Scotch heather, and shaded lights being used. Besides the guest of honor, those playing were Mesdames Ernest L. Cornbrooks, W. M. Salley, Frederick Sanford, W. W. Harwood, J. Winston Reed, Franklin W. Lodgecock and William H. Benson. Mrs. Salley received the prize for making the highest score, and another prize was awarded the honoree, Mrs. Sutton. After the game, tea and confections were served, and those calling for tea included: Mesdames Leveillé, of Washington; Paul DeVoe Sleeper, Walter B. Bailey, Philip T. Marshall, Harold H. Bailey, Thomas A. Nash, E. D. J. Long, E. Grave, of New York; Samuel E. Dutton, John W. C. Jones, Marys Jones, J. Prosser Harrison, G. Grattott Gray, and Missie Harrison.

Doll Exhibition.

One of the most interesting events of tomorrow will be the exhibition of dolls gathered by Mrs. L. S. Cone and Miss Anne Christian during their travels abroad. This exhibition of little foreign toys takes place at the second Presbyterian Church tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, and another feature of the affair will be the display of the doll that has been dressed by the Junior Marions to be presented to the Protestant church at Jerusalem, a very handsome and beautifully dressed doll, and the contrast of the tiny one brought from that Eastern city is most marked. The dolls are invited to attend.

Charity Annals.

"His Model Wife" is the title of the play that will be given at the Young Women's Christian Association, 222 North Fifth Street, this evening at 8 o'clock under the direction and patronage of "The Searchlight" committee. The play is a one-act comedy, and Miss Carrie Minor has been in charge of the program. The cast is a splendid one, and the entertainment will be an unusually interesting affair.

For the benefit of the Chimborazo Mothers' Club.

A "Before the War" entertainment will be given by the boys and girls of the club at 8 o'clock this evening at 815 o'clock. The entertainment is a very clever and well-planned affair, and will include singing, dancing and a variety of other amusements. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the Chimborazo School.

GRAND LODGE WILL MEET NEXT YEAR IN RICHMOND

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Conclude Meetings in Lynchburg After Electing and Installing Officers.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., May 13.—The grand lodge of Odd Fellows and the State Rebekah Assembly, which met in annual session here yesterday morning, today went by special train to the Odd Fellows' Orphanage and Old Folks' Home, several miles below Lynchburg, and formally dedicated the new chapel and school-building, which was built by funds supplied by the Rebekah lodges throughout the State. The cost of the building was $20,000.

The grand lodge held a brief session this afternoon, and to-night, after concluding the secret work of the session, the newly-elected officers were installed, the work being under the direction of Past Grand Master W. E. Allen, of Covington.

Admittance came about 10 o'clock to meet next May in Richmond. Fully 1,500 visitors attended the meetings, and as far as is known, the deliberations of the grand lodge passed off without the slightest friction.

Before adjournment of the Rebekah Assembly, the following appointive officers were filed: chaplain, Mrs. D. L. Martin, of Lamberts Point; marshal, Mrs. J. Levenson, of Richmond; conductor, Mrs. Emma W. Guy, of Lynchburg; inside guardian, Mrs. Amelia Colman, of Hampton; outside guardian, Mrs. Gertie Glover, of Clifton Forge.

The new officers of the grand lodge were completed to-night by the following appointments: grand marshal, Guy T. Horner, of Branchville; grand conductor, W. Ross Southward, of Richmond; grand guardian, B. F. Kibler, of Glenora; grand herald, C. W. O'Meara, of Alexandria.

SOUTH BOSTON IS HIT BY HEAVY WINDSTORM

Tabacco Warehouse, Buggy Plant and Cotton Mills Heavily Damaged—Houston Buildings Also Suffer.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., May 13.—A heavy rainstorm, accompanied by a cyclonic wind, passed over South Boston this afternoon. The entire rear portion of Tuck & Edmunds warehouse was torn away, together with the skylights. Passing to the front, the wind tore away the heavy doors, taking one of them across the street.

A large pile of scrap tobacco on the floor was damaged to the extent of several hundred dollars. The roofs of the Barbours Buggy Co. and Century Cotton Mills were greatly damaged.

Many of the telephone lines are torn down, and telephone service is greatly impaired. Other minor damages were done, both in the business and residential districts. Reports from Houston stated that the storm did much damage there also.

Merchants Name Delegates.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., May 13.—The Retail Merchants' Association, of Roanoke, has elected delegates and alternates to the State Retail Merchants Association which meets in Richmond, May 20 and 21, as follows: Delegates—J. Taylor Glaven, L. B. Davis, E. A. Thurman, E. R. Chick, R. Lee Lynn, C. T. Jennings, W. B. Clemmer, R. H. Willis, M. M. Ramsey and W. S. Jones.

Alternates—J. A. Herbert, W. A. Blyden, L. S. Leap, Joseph Spigel, C. C. Blankenship, D. P. Sites, E. Silbert, George D. Hunter and J. P. Henneberry.

Lightning Wreaks Havoc.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Winchester, Va., May 13.—During a severe electrical storm last night a barn on the Jefferson County farm of Charles L. Robinson, of Winchester, was destroyed by lightning, along with all contents, including seven horses. K. F. Baker's house in Charles town was struck and destroyed. The storm was similar to one of twenty-eight years ago to the very hour.

Frolaset Corset Demonstration
A Corset That Laces in Front

This demonstration will begin to-day and continue until May 30.

The Frolaset Corset Company has sent to the Thalhimers Store an expert Corset-fitter, who will, with the assistance of our expert corsetiers, serve and fit you with a Frolaset (Front Laced) Corset that absolutely fits and gives comfort, health and style to every wearer. There are features in the Frolaset Front Lace Corset that must of necessity commend themselves to the woman of fashion—the perfect-fitting back, the absence of any corset restraint, the ease with which the corset may be put on, taken off or adjusted because of the front lacing principle and, above all, the graceful figure which is acquired with the lines on which the Frolaset is designed.

We have a number of models suitable for each type of figure. The slender, medium and stout, some models to give the natural figure line and corsetless effect so much in demand. The prices for this Corset are $3.50, $5.00, $6.50 and $8.50.

The women of Richmond and vicinity are cordially invited to attend this demonstration of the Frolaset Corset, where the superior merits of the front lace style will be gladly shown.
